
Gordon E. Dyal
Investment Banking
London

Gordon joined Goldman Sachs as a partner in 1998. From 1999 to 2001, Gordon was the co-head of European Mergers & Acquisitions. In 2001, he was named co-head of Investment Banking in Europe. In 2004, he became the global head of Mergers & Acquisitions. Gordon's clients are both in the US and Europe, and span across various industries.

Prior to joining the firm, he worked at Morgan Stanley for eight years and at Merrill Lynch for three years.

Gordon earned an MBA in 1987 and a BA in 1983 from Dartmouth College.