Globalize Your Education at Tuck

Andrew Bernard

FACULTY DIRECTOR, CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS
JACK BYRNE PROFESSOR OF INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS
Globalize Your Education at Tuck

Andrew Bernard

FACULTY DIRECTOR, CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS
JACK BYRNE PROFESSOR OF INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS
How global are you? (exercise 1)

• Please stand up if:
  – You are a citizen of the U.S. and only the U.S. (i.e. no dual nationals)

• Remain standing if you have lived, studied, or worked outside the U.S. (for one year) since you turned 18.
How global are you? (exercise 2)

• Please stand up if:
  – You are a citizen of a country other than the U.S.
• Remain standing if you have lived, studied or worked outside your home country (for one year) since you turned 18.
How global are you? (exercise 3)

- Please raise your hand if:
  - In your job you regularly managed operations, dealt with customers or otherwise engaged in business outside the country where you worked
How global are you? Takeaway

• There is a lot of global knowledge in your classmates
• It is unevenly distributed
• If you are on the low end, you might want to change your place in the distribution.
Your global perspective

You have 2 years, how will you develop your global perspective?
Your global perspective

- Curriculum
- Co-curricular activities
- Community
- Careers
Curriculum

• Soak up the content in Global Economics for Managers
• Design a globally focused First-Year Project
• Sign up for the Tuck Global Consultancy course
• Sign up to take the IE (Spain) mini course on the EU
• Propose a globally focused Independent Study Project
• Apply to study abroad for a term on an exchange program
Globalize Your Education at Tuck

Lisa Miller
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS
Co-curricular activities

• Attend an event on campus
• Participate in Learning Expeditions
• Apply to be a CIB Fellow
• Join a student club or two
Community

• Use your study group and even social situations to learn from people with different experiences and perspectives

• Learn from diverse faculty and staff who have a wide range of expertise
Careers

• Tap into the valuable global alumni network
• Meet with global recruiters
• Participate in global career treks
Globalize Your Education at Tuck

Kevin Su T’11
ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR
GLOBAL INDUSTRIAL GROUP
UBS, NEW YORK CITY
Just a few key dates...

- August 22-26, 2011
  - International Student Orientation
    - MBA PROGRAM OFFICE
- Mid September, 2011
  - Second-year students selected and assigned to Tuck Global Consultancy Winter Track projects
    - JOHN OWENS, TGC
- September 14, 2011, 3-5 p.m.
  - Club Fair, Raether Atrium
    - MBA PROGRAM OFFICE
- September 16, 2011, 5 p.m.
  - Fall Term Independent Study proposals due
    - STACIE MARSHALL, REGISTRAR'S OFFICE
- September, 2011
  - Global Career Trek information session
    - CAREER DEVELOPMENT OFFICE
- September-October, 2011
  - Tuck Global Consultancy Summer Track final presentations
    - JOHN OWENS, TGC
- November 2, 2011, 12 p.m.
  - South Africa Learning Expedition information session
    - SAL CANIA, CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS
- November 3, 2011, 12 p.m.
  - Brazil Learning Expedition information session
    - SAL CANIA, CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS
- November 7-17, 2011
  - Learning Expedition deposits accepted (early registration is recommended)
    - SAL CANIA, CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS
- November 23-27, 2011
  - Global Career Trek to Hong Kong and London
    - CAREER DEVELOPMENT OFFICE
- Late November, 2011
  - Tuck Global Consultancy Winter Track teams depart for 3 weeks full-time work w/ international clients
    - JOHN OWENS, TGC
Don’t worry!

• The Center for International Business can help students take advantage of all Tuck has to offer
• Come see us in Woodbury Hall, 1st floor
Resources on our website

Key dates

These slides

GLOBAL TUCK:
Important Dates and Deadlines
(pdf file)

Orientation 2011 Presentation
(pdf file)
Go Become a Multinational