

Robert G. Leary

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
ING Investment Management Americas

Robert G. Leary is the Chairman and CEO of ING Investment Management, Americas, the asset management arm of ING Group of the Netherlands, one of the world's largest financial services companies. Rob's responsibilities include the U.S., Canada, Mexico and South America.

ING IM Americas manages strategies across a broad range of asset classes and specialty financial products. The company provides traditional and customized solutions for large institutional clients across the globe, as well as an extensive offering of open and closed-end mutual funds, solutions products and variable annuities for retail (individual) customers in its region. Assets under management exceed $200 billion.

Before joining ING, Rob held senior leadership positions with several large financial institutions. Most recently he served as Executive Vice President and Head of North America Corporate and Investor Marketing for AIG Financial Products Corp., a financial products subsidiary of AIG Group, Inc. that concentrates on the derivatives and structured products market. Additionally, he served as President of their broker dealer AIG Financial Securities Corp. Before AIG, he was with JPMorgan, developing derivatives and structured products for a wide range of institutions. Mr. Leary began his career as a lawyer with White & Case, where he helped establish the firm's Middle East presence with an office in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia. Mr. Leary received his J.D. from Fordham University, School of Law, NY and is a graduate of Union College, NY, with an honors degree in political science.