

Participant List

The CIO as Strategic Business Partner: Leading Change and Driving Results
April 19–20, 2006

Jeffrey Balagna	EVP, CIO and CTO Carlson Companies, Inc.
Bill Blausey	VP and CIO Eaton Corporation
Frank Boncimino	SVP and CIO Time Warner Cable
Peter Burrows	SVP of MIS and CIO Reebok, Ltd.
Lynn Caddell	SVP and CIO Waste Management Incorporated
Joel Conrad	SVP and CIO National Life Group
Jeanine Cotter	VP, Business Process, BT/CIO IBM Corporation
Rick Federico	CIO and EVP Fidelity Investments Institutional Services Company
Bill Gauld	Former CIO Pearson plc
Jim Goetz	SVP and CIO The ServiceMaster Company
Edward Granger-Happ	Chief Technology Officer Save the Children
Jerry Hale	VP, eInformation Services and CIO Eastman Chemical Company
Carol Kline	Former CIO America Online

Participant List, April 19–20, 2006

Sarah Miller	SVP and CIO Nash Finch Company
John Mitchell	VP and CIO Pep Boys Auto
Keith Morrow	SVP, Information Systems and CIO 7-Eleven Incorporated
Larry Schwartz	EVP, Global Operations Information Management Group (IMG) Convergys
Doug Schwinn	SVP and CIO Hasbro Incorporated
Marc West	SVP and CIO H&R Block
Chuck Williams	Chief Technology Officer Pfizer Incorporated